The world is full of Languages. Languages are things of beauty. When you travel all over the world, you soon realize that English is the Language of power. As English is already the Language of the internet, the air traffic control system and the Language of the sea it would seem logical to make it formally- The Language of Man!

The Language of Man!

- English is the most spoken & written language around the world. Most publications are in English !
- English is the official language in 70 countries. 1 out of every 5 persons understand it !
- English is the language of science. To excel in science you need to know English !
- English is a tremendous asset for professional career. It increases quality of life and standard of living !
- English is based on alphabets. It can be learned fairly quickly !
